CROWD SEES POLICE IN RAID

Capt. Daily, of the West Forty-seventh street station, and Serbt. Costigan, of McAdoo's Vice Squad, raided an alleged pool-room at No. 146 West Forty-fifth street, this afternoon, just as the matinee crowds were coming out of an adjoining theatre. There was great excitement, and the streets were blocked by thousands of people. The raiders then visited another pool-room at No. 490 Eighth avenue. All the prisoners, eight from the former and twelve from the second place, were taken to Police Headquarters and locked up. Frank Felton, who killed Guy Roche, was arrested as the alleged proprietor of the Eighth avenue resort and a man named Masterson as keeper of the Forty-fifth street place. Over 200 persons were found in the Forty-fifth street house and Klondike dice games, telephones and other paraphernalia were captured.
